
Dot area is the number of leading-edge genes — the part of the annotation that carries the enrichment, not the whole pathway. Filled = FDR < 0.05; open = not significant.

Score is the normalised enrichment score (NES); the raw ES the walk peaks at is in the table beside it.